Digital Resilience Programme

Over three weeks, children will take part in interactive sessions that build safe, positive and confident online habits.

They will explore online safety, digital wellbeing, online risks, healthy relationships and responsible technology use.

Activities will also support critical thinking and help children know how to seek support when needed.

We hope every child enjoys taking part.
If you do not wish your child to participate, please speak to a member of staff.

